

Name _____

Middle School Transition

Circle the face that best describes how you are feeling about going to middle school. On the lines below, explain why.

With a partner, brainstorm all of the exciting things about going to middle school.

A large, empty rounded rectangular box with a thick black border, intended for students to write down exciting things about middle school.

With a partner, list the things about going to middle school that you're unsure about.

A large, empty rounded rectangular box with a thick black border, intended for students to write down things they are unsure about regarding middle school.